VOLUME CVII.--NO. 123. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 22, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

OPEN PUBLICITY THE BEST GUARANTY OF MERIT.

When the maker of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on its bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full upon his formula and that it will bear the fullest scrutiny and the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of the weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence by such open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. It is the only medicine for women's pecular diseases, sold by druggists, that does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, which is in the long run so harmful to woman's delicate, nervous system. Now, glycerine is perfectly harmless, and serves a valuable purpose by possessing intrinsic value all its own, and besides it enhances the curative effect of the other ingredients entering into the "Favorite Prescription."

Some of the ablest medical writers and teachers endorse these views and praise all the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed—recommending them for the cure of the very same diseases for which this world-famed medicine is advised. No other medicine for women has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. It's free for the asking.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Halted Funeral Procession.

The effect of the strike of the New York funeral drivers was apparent yesterday in a diminished number of funerals on the East Side. At the funerals which did take place the owners of the hearses, as a rule, drove them. During the afternoon a widow followed a hearse containing the body of her husband on foot, while a number of strikers kept a little distance behind. The hearse was on its way to the Williamsburg Bridge and had to pass the Elkridge Street police station, where the woman broke into loud lamentations and was becoming hysterical. Acting Inspector Formosa came out and the strikers disappeared. Formosa escorted the hearse across the bridge, the woman following in a street car. Undertaker Sicardi sent out a funeral cortege, consisting of a hearse and four coaches, from his undertaking establishment, bound for Calvary Cemetery. At Washington Park and Fourth street the funeral was halted by President O'Brien, of the union, and the drivers came down from their boxes at his direction. The mourners were very angry, and it looked as if there would be trouble at once. The relatives of the dead man made a tearful appeal to O'Brien and other officers of the union who had collected, and just then a policeman came up. Either the pleadings of the people or the presence of the policeman had the desired effect, and the funeral was allowed to proceed.

Methodists Want Common Faith.

The sixteenth business day of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South began in Birmingham, Ala., yesterday with devotional services, led by Rev. J. C. Reed, of Virginia. A motion fixing the first Wednesday in May, 1910, as the time for holding the next conference prevailed.

An answer by the special committee appointed for the purpose was made to the recent protest filed against the new statement of faith. The answer was signed by C. M. Bishop, O E. Brown and J. H. Scruggs, and said that the protest has been read, "With sorrow and amazement." The reply also stated that it had not been suggested by any representative of the majority that there should be or was needed any revision of the faith, but that the conference only authorized the commission to invite other branches of the Methodist faith to unite in prepairing "an adequate statement of the common faith of the followers of John Wesley." The reply was severe in some particulars and dealt with the subject at considerable detail.

An amendment was made to the report of the committee on Sabbath observance, which was adopted, calling on Congress to require that the gates of the Jamestown Exposition be closed on Sunday.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

At the afternoon session of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in Greenville, S. C., yesterday, it was decided that Rev. William E. Caldwell's case be placed upon the docket, which means that the case may be expected to come up at any hour. The case is known as the complaint of Rev. William E. Caldwell against the Synod of Texas and against the Presbytery of Fort Worth. The case began two years ago, when Mr. Caldwell was called to the First Presbyterian Church of Fort Worth. After the customary examination the Fort Worth Presbytery installed him as pastor. Individuals later complained to the Synod of Texas that Dr. Caldwell's doctrine was not sound, and the Synod recommended to the Fort Worth Presbytery to dissolve relations between the First Presbyterian Church and Dr. Caldwell. It referred the charges back to the Fort Worth Presbytery to be acted upon.

The judicial committee, of which Dr. J. W. Stagg is chairman, reported to the General Assembly yesterday that the committee is doubtful whether this case should be referred to the General Assembly for action, and, therefore, recommended that the case of Caldwell against the Synod of Texas be heard in open session today to determine whether or not the case should come before this assembly. The report was adopted.

Threw Rotten Eggs at Preacher.

Rev. George Porter has been preaching to the people in the country churches of the neighborhood of Nashville, Indiana, for a week past, and at some of the meetings there has been considerable interest shown. In some way, however, the impression got abroad that Mr. Porter is not orthodox, and Sunday night at the church on Lucas Ridge, when he declared that the "Bible is a dead letter," several members of the congregation left the church. In a few minutes a volley of rotten eggs was thrown through the window, and hitting the minister and pulpit shattered over the congregation. Another volley followed and Mr. Porter made for an opposite window and went out and struck for the road. The crowd on the outside of the church gave pursuit and egged him for a mile or more as he ran down the dusty road. Hundreds of eggs were broken on the body of the fleeing minister, and when he sought shelter in a farmhouse two miles away he literally was covered from head to foot with the slimy, spoiled eggs.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ill than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occassionally. DeWitt's Little Early Risers Reliable; effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King St.

Condemn Euchre and Whist.

The American Baptist Home Missionary Society closed the celebrations of its seventy-fourth anniversary at Dayton, Ohio, yesterday, with the election of W. S. Shallenberger, second assistant postmaster general, as president.

Resolutions were adopted petitioning Congress to demand certificates from revenue collectors, showing whisky sold to speakeasies; condemning parlor gambling commonly called progressive euchre and bridge whist; demanding more stringent enforcement of laws covering the slave-bridge whist; demanding more stringent laws regarding racehorse gambling, and approving the efforts of Ohio's Governor to suppress the sale of intoxicating liquors and to enforce the Sunday-closing laws.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickles, of Miletus W. Va., "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists.

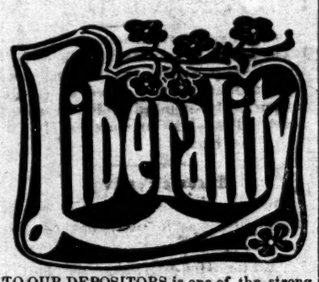
FINANCIAL



TO OUR DEPOSITORS is one of the strong features in favor of this corporation, for where there is liberality there is conservatism and safety, for in being liberal with our patrons we are not only extending our business but also doing something which contributes to the general prosperity of our city. Since the day this institution first opened its doors for business and invited, encouraged and assisted the people of all ages and conditions in life to form correct habits of economy, and save some portion of their earnings, its success has been unexcelled by any banking institution in northern Virginia. We attribute our success largely to the fact that we have shared with our depositors OUR PROFITS by allowing them 3 PER CENT. interest in our Savings Department. The daily deposits of the executor, administrator, curator, assignee, receiver, trustee under decree or will, or order of court receive interest on their monthly balances. Liberal interest allowed on money deposited pending investment, and on certificates of deposits, and all other special accounts. This corporation has unsurpassed facilities for handling the accounts of banks, corporations and individuals, and solicits the same.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 22, 1906.

TWICE CONVICTED in the lower courts of illegally accepting fees from a get-rich-quick concern to use his influence in its favor before the Post Office Department, United States Senator Joseph R. Burton, of Kansas, by a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday, as was stated in the Gazette of that day, will be compelled to pay fines aggregating $2,500, to serve a sentence of six months in jail, and will be forever barred from holding office under the government. The Supreme Court's decree confirms the action of the court below, including the sentence. The convicted Senator has sixty days in which to prepare an application for a rehearing, and, as this will serve as a stay of proceedings until the October session of the court, his sentence will not take effect until the application has been acted upon. To all intents and purposes, however, Burton has exhausted his resources in the courts, for there can be no likelihood that any new contention or new information can be produced that will cause the court to give the case further consideration. His conviction will stand and the sentence will be enforced. Burton does not cease to become a member of the Senate because of his conviction. Even when he goes to jail he will be a Senator. The court was very clear on that point. It held that as the representative of a State, and not an officer of the United States government, Burton can be removed from the Senate only by the Senate. The Senate is under no obligations to await the next term of court, and it should expel him on the ample ground that he has been convicted and his conviction has been sustained on appeal by the court of last resort. From the Senate to the penitentiary! Thus again the people of the country are humilated.

THE LATE Mark Hanna's 1896 bargain with the Mormons is apparently still held valid by the republican managers, and it is very unlikely that any action will be taken this session likely to disturb Senator Smoot. The investigation into the charges against Smoot has dragged along for more than two years at a cost to the Government of fully $50,000, and a majority of the Senate committee on privileges and elections is known to be in favor of declaring his seat vacant. A report to this effect will be made to the Senate if the committee is permitted to take up the case for final disposition. But on one excuse or another the committee has been held back for months from taking action. Half a dozen times a day has been fixed for taking a final vote. But each time there has been further postponement. The latest date fixed was yesterday. But before the hour for meeting arrived as was stated in the Gazette of yesterday word was sent to members of the committee that Senator Burrows, the chairman, was slightly indisposed and the meeting was once more postponed. Plainly it is the intention of the republican managers to put the settlement of the case over until next session, so that the Mormon vote may not be turned from the republicans this fall by action adverse to Smoot nor the votes of church people alienated by failure to unseat Smoot. It will be remembered that Congressman Roberts, from Utah, was unseated in short order and turned out of the House most unceremoniously because he was a Mormon—but he was a democrat!

INVESTIGATIONS into the management of the Government Asylum for the Insane at Washington and of the Eastern Asylum at Williamsburg, Va., show that some of both the doctors and attendants at these institutions are brutes and should be treated as such. It is feared that this charge also holds true in many other insane asylums in the country and that many men who seek employment in such institutions have brutish instincts or soon acquire them after securing their positions. Men who would abuse, torture or otherwise ill treat their fellow being whom providence has afflicted are deserving of no consideration whatever and a severe example should be made of them. The most rigid penalty that the law imposes should be meeted out to these wretches and lynching bees at Washington and Williamsburg might not buzz amiss.

SECRETARY TAFT sent to Congress yesterday the Panama canal budget for the current year, carrying appropriations of $26,348,281. This is the most expensive business the government has ever engaged in.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, May 22.

In a review of the copper situation in this country experts in the Department of Commerce and Labor state that the price of this metal recently attained the highest position since the Secretan corner in 1888. This is said to be due to the extraordinary use of copper for electrical purposes. Aluminum is the only similar medium thus far discovered to act as as a substitute for copper in this field, but its price and output threaten no competition with copper. The department says that many railroads are arranging for the electrification of suburban divisions, and that thus another element will be added to the consumption. The world's production of copper is now placed at 700,000 tons, of which 397,909 tons were mined in the United States in 1905. The production in Spain and Portugal, other prominent sources, is on the decrease, while the Mexican production has more than doubled since 1900.

Some annoyance has been caused to the three members of a committee of the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, of Philadelphia, by the publi cation of a statement to the effect that the committee recently called upon the President at the White House to petition him to appoint to the Naval Academy a great grandson of Commodore Barry of revolutionary fame. Rear Admiral Melville, who was a member of the committee, has issued a card stating that this publication was incorrect. Its immadiate effect was to elicit a strong letter to the President from a resident of New York calliug attention to the fact that Commodore Barry died a bachelor and witbout an issue. Now Admiral Melville states in his card that the committee while presenting the petition requested the appointment not for a great-grandson of Barry, but for a great-grand-nephew. There was no intention to misrepresent the facts or to deceive any one, and the committee, resident at the home of Barry and fully acquainted with the family history, knew just what it was doing, so says Admiral Melville in his statement.

Dominican possibilities were much discuesed at the State Department today additional rumors of the most trustworthy character arriving from the West, Indies indicating that a formal revolutionary invasion is being planned by former President Morales. Morales is now in St. Thomas, Danish West Indies and it is from this island that the invasion will be directed, if there is to be one. The whereabouts of General Jiminez, the guiding spirit of the undertaking, is uncertain, but it is understood that he is not far from St. Thomas. Additional complications arise from the reported dissatisfaction of the Dominican populace with the Caceres administration. The Dominicans are said to find his rule more irksome than that of Morales and to be in a receptive mood for the return of the deposed president. As is well known the revolution is a permanent institution in northern Santo Domingo, and the State Department understands that should there appear off the coast of the republic an expedition from St. Thomas or any other neighboring island, the northern and central part of the republic would be in a turmoil of disturbance. The part this government would play in any general Dominican scrap at this time is fairly well defined. It is believed that the Dominicans, having once driven out Morales and elected to stand by Caceres, will have to play or pay; this government will not stand for another change of administration while the treaty is pending. American ships now in the vicinity of Santo Domingo will fend off any floating revolutionary expedition, according to orders already in the hands of Commander Southerland. The four hundred marines yesterday rushed south by the cruiser Columbia will probably reach the West Indies in two or three days. Such a force of Americans could whip all the revolutionists in Santo Domingo.

James A. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, has practically completed all the sub-divisions of his report on the Standard Oil Company except that on competition and methods. The subdivisions completed deal with production and refining, control of pipe lines, organization and foreign trade and conditions. The commissioner has not decided whether there will be several separate reports on one complete report on these subjects. He declines to say whether he will submit all to the President before Congress adjourns or not, but it is understood that, if necessary, the final reports may be completed by that time.

The State Department this afternoon received a dispatch from Ambassador von Meyer, at St. Petersburg, stating that the Russian government had instructed the governor of the province in which Batoum is located, to use every effort to apprehend the assassins of U. S. Vice Consul Wm. H. Stuart, who was shot and killed day before yesterday. The dispatch adds that Mr. Stuart was shot from ambush near Manzidjani. He died within an hour. The State Department also received this morning a brief dispatch from U. S. Consul Heenan, at Odessa, near Batoum, reporting Stuart's death, but giving no details.

It was authoritatively announced today that the conferees on the statehood bill have come to a tentative agreement which will be perfected within a week and reported to both Houses. It provides for immediate statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory and leaves Arizona and New Mexico to some sort of a vote of the two territories. It is announced that the agreement in prospect will not be presented as a rider to an appropriation bill, but will stand on its own feet and pass as a separate measure.

Sanitation of steam and electric cars and the cleanliness of the milk supply were the principal topics of discussion today at the session of the National Conference of State and Provincial Boards of Health of North America. The members listened to a lengthy talk from T. R. Crowder, superintendent of sanitation of the Pullman car service, in which he described the most successful method for fumigation of cars. He said that all cars are fumigated at least once a month, and those carrying passengers to the Adirondacks, Denver, and other resorts frequented by consumptives are fumigated at the end of every trip, or at least every week.

The case of Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, has been permanently shelved for this session. Those members of the committee who believe that if Smoot is to be put out of the Senate at all it must be by a resolution to expel him, which requires a two-thirds vote, are strongly opposed to injecting this constitutional question which would inevitably lead to long debate in the Senate at this time. An understanding has therefore been reached that the case shall be allowed to go over until next session.

Twenty-two bills, six Senate and sixteen House measures, were passed by the House yesterday. Among them were the following: To prohibit shanghaiing in the United States; to regulate enlistments and punishments in the revenue cutter service; amending the act to define and fix the standard of value. The law of March 14, 1900, provided for a reserve fund in gold of $150,000,000. The law as it now stands provides that $100,000,000 of this reserve fund shall be in coin and virtually restricts the bullion of the reserve fund to $50,000,000.

Injuries which Benjamin Whitney, sixty years old, of 1211 Sixth street northwest, received when he fell down the steps at the Elks' Club, near Tenth and E. street northwest, last night, resulted in his death at the Emergency Hospital this morning. The railroad rate bill was considered for three hours last night by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, and the decision reached to recommend disagreement to all of the Senate amendments and to send the measure to conference. The committee will not ask that instructions of any character be given to the House conferees.

For not acceding to their demand for three dollars a day, all the ship carpenters in Baltimore belonging to the ship-joiners' union went on strike yesterday. It was stated that the trouble started at William E. Woodall's shipyard, where a number of workmen were employed building a large dredge for the Maryland Dredging Company. The men have been getting $2.75 a day for nine hours work. The strike effects all the shipyards in Baltimore, and until a settlement is arrived at work will be at a standstill.

Five steamers entered the port of Baltimore yesterday with bananas from Cuba and Jamaica, the combined cargoes of which reached 109,327 bunches, probably the high water mark of receipts at that port for one day. Tomorrow the largest cargo of bananas known to have been received at that port will arrive on the United Fruit Company's steamer Fruters, from Jamaica The ship has been manifested with 40,500 bunches. The wise say this is not the largest ever brought to Baltimore, but officials of the United declare it will be.

A dispatch from Melilla, Morocco, says that the steamer Manolita, bound from Tetuan, Morocco, for that port, and flying the United States flag, has been attacked by Moors, who took away some of her passengers. The Manolita's machinery got out of order and she was obliged to approach the coast. While lying off the Penon de Velez, about half way between Tetuan and Melilla, a number of Moorish fishermen swam off from the shore and boarded the Manolita, compelling her crew to hand over to them a number of Moorish passengers belonging to the Beni Barragnel tribe.

The body of Rev. Charles Dingildie, a minister, eighty-five years of age, was found yesterday afternoon hanging to the limb of a tree on the farm of William Kirby, in Campbell county, Ky. Both wrists were badly lacerated, showing the aged minister had attempted to end his life by opening his arteries before resorting to the use of a rope. Two years ago Mrs. Dingildie died. The minister became melancholy over his bereavement. Added to it was worry over ill health, which, it is supposed, led him to end his life. For half a century he preached in Kentucky towns about Covington and Newport.

Today's Telegraphic News

Explosion and Lost of Life.

Shady Side, N. J., May 22.—An explosion, followed by fire, occurred in the works of the New York Glucose Company this morning. Many employes were caught in the ruins and were either killed or injured. The estimate of dead varies from ten to twenty five and half a hundred are reported injured. A four story brick building, one hundred feet, was completely wrecked and out buildings were torn to pieces. There were five hundred men in the building at the time and the children of these who live in the neighborhood were thrown into a panic. Calls were sent to nearby towns for ambulances and police and sailors on the war ships lying in the harbor were asked to aid in the rescue.

The explosion, it is believed, was caused by a defective boiler. It occurred at 8:30 this morning when the hundreds of men and women and children in the factory had settled down to their daily tasks.

Fire immediately followed the explosion and scenes of wild excitement ensued. Those who managed to escape set to work to extinguish the flames and to rescue the unfortunate fellow workers who were injured. The work of rescue was retarded by the cries of hundreds of women and children who insisted on entering the wrecked building to search for husband and fathers.

Just west of the boilers, where the greatest damage was done, there were fully a hundred men at work. It is believed, however, that the greater part of these escaped, the police declaring in the confusion that all had been accounted for save ten or twenty. Some of the injured, suffering from pains and bruises, did not wait for local medical attention, but ran for the nearest town.

Just outside of the big grounds of the Glucose works more than 25 of the injured lay awaiting surgeons who had been sent for. Meantime the sailors began digging in the ruins in an effort to get to the buried ones in hope that some might be extricated alive.

Affairs in Russia.

Liverpool, May 22.—A dispatch to the Post from Paris says that M. Nelidorff, the Russian Ambassador to France, is anxious to retire from the Post and that the former Russian Premier, Count Witte, and his wife ardently desire the position. Owing to the campaign against Count Witte by the French press, however, it is not likely that the post will be given to him. The reason why Count Witte desires to be Ambassador to France is, owing to his wife's Jewish origin, it is impossible to play the diplomatic and social role at any embassy but that in Paris.

Tiflis, May 22.—Cossacks are terrorizing the district of Choucha, killing and plundering the inhabitants wholesale. Gen. Malma, the military commander, is making no efforts to end the bloodshed. Bands of Hooligans, aided by Russian police, are preparing to attack the revolutionary committees. The Armenian and Georgian papers has been suspended by the police.

One-Hundred-Ninety-Pound Tumor.

Springfield, Mass., May 22.—A most unusual surgical operation was performed last Thursday at the Springfield Hospital upon Mrs. Annie D. Hodgerny. A cystic tumor, the weight of which was greater than the normal weight of the woman, was removed as a last resort to save the woman's life. The effort proved unavailing, however, death following the day after the operation. The tumor taken from the woman weighed about 190 pounds of which 156 pounds was fluid. It is believed the cyst had its beginning six or seven years ago. The woman weighed then about 180 pounds and her weight gradually increased until she developed the most remarkable growth of the kind which history records. So far as is known the largest tumor before known weighed from forty to fifty pounds less than this one.

Frog Plays Ghost.

New Orleans, May 22.—A squad of police solved the mystery of a haunted house on Royal and Touro streets yesterday morning, when they found under the building a bullfrog which weighed twelve pounds. The sepulchral sounds increased in frequenay and volume after the departure of the tenants, and the neighborhood was aroused The house has been shunned. Sunday night, as a result of complaints, policemen were placed on watch and discovered the frog.

In accomplishing this feat Mr. Weston, who is now in his sixty-eighth year, hopes to excel the walk by himself, when at 25 years of age he covered the same ground. He will be accompanied on his journey by four physicians who will ride in carriages. "In my walk I shall wear the same shoes in which I won the great Astley belt, and I feel convinced I will beat my own time. It's a great shame the present generation does not walk more."

Mrs. Brouer's Death.

Toms River, N. J., May 22.—The grand jury which will have to decide whether Prosecutor Theodore J. R. Brown has enough evidence to warrant the return of an indictment for murder against one or more persons as the result of the mysterious death of Mrs. Carrie D. Brouer, wife of a prominent physician of North street. Arsenic was found in the stomach of the woman at a special autopsy held three months after burial. Convinced that the woman met a violent death, and was not the victim of Bright's disease, as the death certificate reported, the prosecutor, with a strong array of witnesses and new evidence expects to prove conclusively, on this second attempt, to secure an indictment that a crime was committed. Among the witnesses is Dr. H. H. Cate, of Lakewood, N. J., who signed the death certificate giving Bright's disease as the cause of death. When the original investigation began Dr. Cate disappeared and after aimless wandering, with his mind almost a blank, he was finally located at Groavenor, N. Y.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and somewhat warmer tonight. Wednesday increasing cloudiness; light variable winds, becoming easterly.

Cutting Affray.

Early last night the northeastern section of the city was started by cries of Samuel (alias "Dink") Dudley, a well known colored man, who had been cut by another colored man named Wilson Reed. Officers Henderson and Arrington were dispatched to the scene by Chief Webster They found Dudley bleeding profusely from a gash in the throat. The front of his shirt was covered with gore and his general appearance indicated that he had been seriously if not fatally injured. He was conducted to the station house where he was attended by Dr. Warfield, who soon ascertained that the was not dangerous. Officers n and Arrington later arrested locked him up. About half- o'clock this morning Dudley tation house, after promising to Police Court at 9 o'clock this but he could not be found case was called. It seems that and Dudley had had a previous difficulty and when they met in a house in the northeastern section of the city last night the trouble was renewed and both were ejected. It is said that Dudley was armed with a razor and Reed with a knife, and when the two men reached the centre of the square on Pitt street, between Princess and Oronoco, they began to slash at each other until Dudley received a cut on the neck which caused him to make an outcry. Both men had been drinking.

Constable Exonerated.

After a preliminary hearing in the office of Sheriff William H. Palmer, at Rosslyn, Alexandria county, yesterday, Constable Edward E. Veitch, who on Saturday shot and killed John Jones, an aged negro basket maker, was released from custody, having been exonerated from any blame in the matter. Justice of the Peace E. F. Thompson presided at the hearing, and Commonwealth's Attorney Crandall Mackey represented the State.

All the witnesses except one testified that Jones was in the act of firing when he was killed.

At a coroner's inquest several witnesses testified that Jones was shot while he was aiming his pistol at the officer. The jury decided Veitch was not responsible, without leaving their seats.

The shooting of Jones grew out of a quarrel between him and another negro, named Willie Russell, in Georgetown The latter, it is said, refused to treat Jones to a drink, which so angered the old man that he threatened to shoot Russell. He got a revolver and fired three shots at Russell and one at Rastus Ransom, also a negro Terry Godsey, a friend of Jones, then appeared and took hold of Jones in an effort to prevent him from doing further harm. As he did so Jones shot him through the lungs. Constable Veitch then attempted to arrest Jones who received a mortal wound.

Sent to Jail.

Justice Caton in the Police Court last night sentenced James Trimble, colored, to jail for three months for larceny committed at the Hotel Rammel. The offense for which he was arrested occurred several days ago. Trimble was employed at the hotel, and there was reason to believe that his peculations had been going on for some time. He was finally caught in one of his acts and when one of the proprietors attempted to take him in charge he fled and jumped from a second-story window. When Trimble reached terra firma he was seized by another of the proprietors who held him until acting Lieutenant Gill arrived and took the man in charge.

Iron Coffin Exhumed?

While workmen were engaged in excavating under the Cameron street portion of the Braddock House yesterday they unearthed what is supposed to be an antique iron coffin, which has given rise to many speculations, some suggesting it was buried by English pioneers centuries ago. Mr. William W. Simpson, the present proprietor of the Braddock House, has placed the receptable in the Carlyle House, where it is viewed by visitors to that interesting landmark of colonial days.

Died from His Injuries.

John H. Jeffries, baggage master for the Southern Railway at Manassas, died from injuries received by falling between cars last Saturday night. He was on top of a refrigerator car when the train started suddenly, throwing him between the cars. His left shoulder was crushed and his left side mashed in by the car wheels passing over him. He died in about an hour. He leaves a widow and eight children.

Cool Weather.

The cool wave which settled over this section last Saturday night rendered fires necessary at times. There was a slight frost in parts of Prince William Sunday night, which about completed the destruction of the strawberries already begun by the unusual drought, but the small crops have, it is said, suffered far more from the hot, dry spell of the last two weeks than from the preceeding frosts.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Alice Nash, who died at her home in this city Sunday, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church, and was attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Fathers Cutler and Patrick. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. Harlow, R. H. Lyles, M. Schuler, Thos. Hoy, James Roche and F. M. Hill.

Property Sale.

Mr. Henry Baader has purchased the brick building on the east side of Fairfax street, between King and Cameron, now occupied by Mr. Thomas Elliot. Mr. Baader will use the rear premises and the cellar of the building in connection with his business. The other portion will continue to be used as a store.

The pupils of West End public school will hold an entertainment and festival in Meem Hall, West End, Wednesday evening, May 23, at 8 o'clock.

Elks' Bazar.

The Elks' Bazar was again the centre of attraction last night. About 100 members of Washington Lodge of Elks, accompanied by a drum corps and a number of ladies came down early in the night.

Upon their arrival at the armory the Washington brothers were welcomed in a brief but graceful speech by Exalted Ruler Shuman, who closed by consigning the visitors to the tender mercy of the ladies in charge of the bazaar. The fun then commenced and was fast and furious until nearly midnight, when the Washingtonians departed on their special train.

The $100 government bond was won by ticket No. 127, which is supposed to be held by some one in Washington. Ticket No. 373, which won the bond Saturday night, was held by Mr. Robert Britt, of Washington.

There was a large attendance of Alexandrians and the voting was lively until a late hour. Among the contests that are attracting unusual attention are those for a handsome Elks' charm and a punch bowl. The contestants for the charm are Messrs. Jacob Brill, L. Shuman, Chas. Bendheim, W. H. P. Kelly, August Pohl, Peter Von de Westelaken, E. L. Crymes, C M. Lennon, F. M. Hill, F. P. Russell, Thomas Gorham, L. E. Finks, H. M Hockman, C. B. Nagel. L. C. Barley, E E. Downham and Charles B. Marshall. For the punch bowl the contestants are Riley & Spinks, Thomas Kelly, Louis Brill, W. H. Broughton and George Pettey. The committee has made arrangements for dancing each night, commencing after the vaudeville performance.

Tonight, Professor George, a celebrated aerial artist, will give his famous exhibition in mid-air, commencing at 9:30 p. m. and from 10 to 11 p. m. there will be dancing. The Modern Woodmen of America will attend the bazar in a body tonight.

Tomorrow night, the Knights of Columbus, the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum, and the Red Men will attend the bazar. The vaudeville feature will be a trick bicycle act by a well known performer.

Body Found.

About eight o'clock this morning the body of a drowned man was discovered by some boys alongside of the northern leg of the transfer slip at the foot of Wilkes street. The body was towed ashore and landed on the lot adjoining the Vulcanizing Works on the south and the authorities notified. Later Demaine & Son took it in charge and carried it to their undertaking establishment.

The remains were those of a man about five feet six inches in height, apparently of German birth, and between 50 and 60 years of age. The body was fully clothed. Some who examined it were of the opinion that it had been in the water some time. About fifty persons gathered and looked at the remains, but no one was able to identify them.

After the body had reached Demaine & Son's undertaking establishment Justice Pelton was notified and he deemed an inquest unnecessary. No marks of violence were discovered, nor could anything be found in the pockets by which the identity of the deceased could be learned. It is supposed that the body was brought by the tide from Washington.

Memorial Day.

Thursday, the 24th, being Confederate Memorial Day, will be appropriately observed in this city. In the morning committees of Lee Camp will visit the cemeteries near the city and strew flowers overs over the graves of the Confederate dead buried therein. In the evening Lee Camp will meet at their hall and, headed by a band, will proceed to the Confederate monument where the exercises will be held. Hon. John Lamb will deliver the address. After this the procession will march to Christ Church yard where the mound over the Confederate dead will be strewn with flowers and where, after "taps," the exercises will close.

Lee Camp Hall will be open all day Thursday for the reception of flowers to help decorate the graves of the Confederate dead. It is hoped that all persons interested in this work will respond to this call.

The ladies and gentlemen who intend taking part in the singing at the Confederate Memorial exercises will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at Confederate Veterans' Hall.

Withdrawn from the Race.

Mr. C. O. Pulman has withdrawn his name as a candidate for the City Council from the Fourth ward, and Mr. Albert Bryan has consented to have his name placed upon the ticket in place of Mr. Pulman's, having been earnestly requested to do so by a number of citizens, not only in the Fourth but in other wards of the city. When Mr. Pulman learned that Mr. Bryan was being urged to run for re-election, he withdrew in his favor. Mr. Frank Evans has filed notice of his candidacy for the Common Council from the Fourth ward. He is the only candidate in the field apart from the regular democratic nominees.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Wilson Reed, colored, arrested by Officers Henderson and Arrington charged with feloniously cutting Samuel Dudley, also colored, had his case continued.

Lottie Knopton, arrested by Officer Jones charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

William Saunders, colored, arrested by Officer Jones charged with assaulting Joseph Fair, was fined $5.

Osceola Tribe of Red Men will visit the Elk's Bazaar tomorrow night. On Thursday night the grand officers of Washington will make an official visitation to Osceola Tribe.

Much complaint is made that the street sprinkler follows the street sweeper instead of vice versa.

Washington Luna Park.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of Washington Luna Park at Four-mile Run, on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, May 28th. The work of whipping this forest into the shape of a great city of pleasure at an expenditure of more than half a million dollars has employed upwards of five hundred men since early in February, and has been a record breaking construction. From the chutes to the circle swing, the scenic river, and all the various attractions there is an unbroken succession of the greatest amusement devices of a progressive age. For the three entertainments of the public the company has arranged to give a band concert twice daily and also to have a free hippodrome performance on the big outdoor stage twice a day. This stage will accommodate the most expensive circus acts now in use, up to the equestrienne performances and the biggest tumbling numbers. For the opening week Liberati's band of sixty pieces has been engaged for the bandstand, and the Besse Valdare troupe of bicyclists will be on the stage. For the second week Philippini's band of sixty pieces will have the grandstand and the Norrins, man and woman, will be on the hippodrome with a high diving act from a lofty stand into a shallow tank of water. Thousands of dollars have been contracted for in acts to be presented at this great amusement park, and the most expensive acts in the world will be given during the season. In addition to the thirty attractions on the grounds, there are recreation and picnic groves for the excursion parties and opportunities for every kind of outdoor sport. There has been a great demand for excursion days, and the attendance from points as far distant as 200 miles will be enough to give the train service the general daily aspect of holiday occasions.

The police allege there was evidence that the furniture in all the rooms had been saturated with kerosene. The police say the place was insured.

A little son of Mr. James Mills, living in the eastern section of the city strayed from his home last night, having been attracted by the music on King street. TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 22, 1906.

Killed by Live Wire.

While rescuing his brother, who had accidentally grabbed a live electric wire, Donato de Espin, 23 years old, of Port Morris, N. Y., was instantly killed yesterday. The current passed through both bodies. The brother, Paola, 17 years old, was taken to Lincoln Hospital suffering from badly burned hands. The brothers were at work outside the New York Central powerhouse at Port Morris filling in the tracks. Overhead was a highly charged wire, which supplied the lighting power to lamps in the neighborhood. In some way the younger brother Paola caught hold of the wire and immediately started shouting. He had hold of it with only one hand, but found that he could not let go. Donato put a hand on each of his brother's shoulders and by a desperate effort released him. Then he fell back dead. An examination of the body showed not a mark of any kind.

Medical Partners Divorced.

After having lived together 30 years, most of which time they have been associated in the practice of medicine, Dr. Maude McKinley Herrold and Dr. Herbert McKinley Herrold, of Kansas City, Mo., have been divorced. Dr. Maude charged that Dr. Herbert was cruel. The Herrolds have been married twice. They were first united in Philadelphia in 1877 by the Quaker ceremony. A year later they were married by a Presbyterian minister. When Dr. Maude Herrold's father died, 35 years ago, she was the only child, and he requested her to continue the family name, and to refuse to marry anyone who would refuse to assume it. Herbert McKinley, therefore, took the name Herrold, and the marriage license was issued, and they were wed under the bride's name. The Herrolds have grown children and still occupy the same home, but will shortly separate.

Sickness Made Her Rash.

"I am sick nearly all the time, and might as well be dead," said Mrs. Charles R. Marsh, wife of a Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad conductor, to the neighbors in Charlottesville yesterday. Five hours later, while neighbors were searching the house for a revolver, Mrs. Marsh went to her room, and, kneeling beside the bed, fired two shots into her body. Both bullets entered her shoulder, one making a very ugly wound. Her dress became ignited from the powder, so close was the weapon held to her body. She will recover. Mrs. Marsh was a Miss Callie Wingfield, of Spottsylvania county. She has resided in Charlottesville since her marriage. She has three children, the eldest about five years of age.

In Mine 2,000 Years.

A miner who lost his life two thousand years ago was taken from a copper mine in Chili recently. Copper oxide had mummified his whole body. The mummy is in a fine state of preservation. Coarse sacking, evidently the clothing of the ancient Inca workman, was found with the body, as were also two mallets, one fashioned out of granite and the other out of ironstone. These implements were tied with thongs into bent sticks made as double handles. Both the hide and the sticks were as fresh looking, when found, as if they had been in use only the day before.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Carried on Shoulders of Admirers.

Wm. Sherring, winner of the Marathon race, at the Olympic games at Athens, Greece, arrived at Montreal yesterday morning and was carried out of the station on the shoulders of his admirers. He was feted there all day and left for his home in Hamilton last night. Sherring, immediately after the race, was presentek by the people of Athens with a small white kid, emblematic of unwearinness. As he could not bring it to Canada he presented it to his landlady at Athens.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexion.
